The UK chemical sector is a major contributor to the UK economy, generating £65.5bn and £21.8bn GVA. This sector plays a crucial role in society, the economy, and sustainability, often going unrecognised.

Are you ready to take your sustainability efforts to the next level? The CBA Net Zero and Compliance Day is your opportunity to connect with industry leaders, learn about the latest trends, and gain practical insights into achieving Net Zero in the UK chemical supply chain.

This one-day event is packed with engaging keynote presentations, interactive workshops, and in-depth panel discussions that will provide you with the tools and knowledge needed to navigate the complexities of sustainability. From learning about available solutions to understanding the latest regulatory and legislative requirements, this event covers all aspects of sustainability compliance and meeting Net Zero.

Act Fast! We are offering only 50 tickets for this exclusive event. Secure your spot today to ensure you don't miss out on this invaluable opportunity!

Why Attend?

- Policy to Practice: Get practical guidance on translating evolving Net Zero and sustainability regulations—like ESPR and packaging waste—into real action across your operations.
- Industry Expertise: Learn from frontline speakers including SMEs, multinationals, and policy experts driving sustainability implementation across the chemical supply chain.
- Regulatory Readiness: Understand what's coming with the UK's packaging and product sustainability rules, and how to prepare for complex social and environmental reporting demands.
- SME-Centric Solutions: Whether you're just starting or scaling your sustainability journey, discover tailored resources and case studies from the SME Climate Hub and peers.
- Strategy in Action: See how companies are embedding Net Zero strategies into procurement, product design, and site operations—with lessons you can apply immediately.
- Collaborative Space: Build new partnerships and share knowledge in an in-person setting designed for open conversation, reflection, and problem-solving.
