Why Attend?

The rapid spread of COVID-19 has caused global issues across supply chains. Companies are seeing existing suppliers struggling to meet demands and customers struggling to operate. If you have asked any of the questions below then this webinar is just what you need.

- ◆ Are you experiencing attempts by customers to cancel orders already made?
- ◆ Are you awaiting payment for goods supplied?
- ◆ Does your distributorship agreement or sale contract cover force majeure? If so, does this cover COVID-19?
- ◆ Do your contracts refer to your standard terms and conditions of sale?
- ◆ Have your standard terms and conditions been properly incorporated into your contracts?
- ◆ Do your standard terms and conditions provide for you to retain title?

Who should attend?

Companies teams involved in buying and selling chemicals subject to commercial agreements

Steven Sidkin, a Partner in Fox Williams LLC, will provide information pertaining to commercial law and the impacts on the supply chain of the current COVID-19 pandemic relating to:

- ◆ Contract Terms & Conditions
- ◆ Dealing with orders being cancelled by business customers
- ◆ Retaining ownership of goods supplied

This event is free to attend for members of the CBA
