Successfully managing an incident involving chemicals depends on effective planning and a well-drilled response to the emergency.

This tried and tested CBA workshop is designed to provide an insight into the planning and response process for an on-site incident and includes a simulated emergency.

The workshop is suitable for all levels of personnel requiring a practical knowledge of emergency response.

It will be particularly useful to those who may have a specific responsibility within company emergency response plans.

The workshop provides an insight into aspects of emergency response including:

- Emergency planning and communication
- The role of the emergency services at an incident
- Business continuity planning
- Managing the media
- Post incident investigations and reporting
- Live Action “Role Play” scenario
