

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

This award will be presented to a person who has been active within your company or the wider chemical supply chain community for 20 years or more. It aims to recognise their contributions over their whole career, rather than or in addition to a single contribution. This person should have given outstanding service, demonstrated high quality and sustained commitment to your company and/or the wider chemical supply chain and best represents achievement and longevity. This may be through outstanding leadership characteristics, business excellence achievements, inspiring and helping others to achieve a similar success or an unsung hero who works quietly in the background but who is an integral lynchpin of the business

This contribution might be evidenced through feedback from colleagues, suppliers or customers for example
